Safe areas

It ensures that the logo is never placed too to the edge of a document. The X factor is measured using the width of the word U from the logo and must be applied to all four sides of the logo as illustrated below.